Those that were fixed in both After fixing, negatives should always be washed from 40 to 60 minutes in running water, which is constantly passing over both sides of each negative, or in from 10 to 12 changes of water, at intervals of 5 minutes, if they are washed in a tray. Negatives should never be stored away between the leaves of a book. Book paper usually contains chemicals that will injure a negative, and ink from a printed page sometimes becomes indelibly impressed on negatives. Glass negatives can safely be stored, face to face and back to back, without any paper between them, in the box in which the plates were packed. The face of a glass-plate negative...
