The goods were more liberally used, friends recommended them to friends, and the success of the pound package was so immediate that the Freeman Perfume Co. have just put out a full half pound of delicately and strongly perfumed Violet in a package pronounced the handsomest thing ever shown in Talc, free from advertisements, violets in conventional arrangements, the whole color scheme unique--a container worthy of a place on any dresser. The quality of the goods is Freeman, which all know in powder means the best. This Violet is, of course, distributed only under their D. C. S. N. consignment plan. Price $2.00 per dozen. Freeman has consistently worked for price protection when many had weak knees; they kept going all the time, changing their own plans to meet the altered conditions, making them stronger than ever because the goods belonged to them...
